

SHOW SYNOPSIS AND CHARACTER BREAKDOWN

Synopsis

When Levi, a fairy from a small town, crushes their wing trying to save their friends, they lose their ability to control the wind and fly. Determined to get their powers back so that they feel whole again, they embark on a journey with their friends in search of how to fix their broken wing. Instead, it puts everything they love in grave danger.

Character breakdown

Levi, any gender, lead

A fun-loving fairy who is meticulous in everything they do. They value strength and power so they can protect their loved ones.

Nova, any gender, supporting

This firecracker red Phoenix has a codependent nature and an unwavering trust in their family.

Marcelino, male-identifying, supporting

He is the brains of the two headed tortoise yet lacks all physical prowess. He's a hypochondriac, a person who is abnormally anxious about their health. He also has Tachophobia which is the irrational fear of speed. Even walking too fast can cause him to retreat into his shell.

Mr. Komodo/Mega Manian, male-identifying, supporting

- Mr. Komodo: The Librarian who knows a little about a lot. He knows exactly where to start but never how to finish.
- Mega Manian: A gluttonous predator with a complicated past.